ARTICLE I.

AFFILIATION

Section 1.

Requirements

An NRHH Chapter shall be considered affiliated if they complete the following prior requirements prior to the start of the NACURH Corporate Business Meeting:

1. Submit a chapter affiliation form to the NIC.
2. Submit updated contact information for the chapter NRHH representative and advisor to the NIC.
3. Submit a current membership list to the NIC.
4. Submit an updated copy of the chapter's constitution in accordance with the NRHH Constitution Checklist.
5. Maintain good standing with NACURH.

Subsection A.

Affiliation Cycle

NRHH Chapters are encouraged to affiliate annually for the upcoming NACURH year at the NACURH conference to maximize access to services and resources.

Subsection B.

RHA Requirement

Hosting an RHA is not a requirement for affiliation of an NRHH Chapter.

Section 2.

Benefits

An active Affiliated Chapter will receive the following benefits during the affiliation period:

1. Voting rights at the annual NACURH Corporate Business Meeting and regional business meetings, so long as the chapter maintains good standing.
2. Free Resource File Index (RFI) pages from the NIC.
3. Participation in the OTM program.
4. Access to free resources intended to support and assist chapters.
5. The right to purchase NRHH Pins.
6. The right to purchase NRHH honor cords.
7. The right to purchase NRHH individual membership certificates.

Section 3.

Fees

Schools shall pay the NACURH affiliation fee outlined in the NACURH governing documents.

Subsection A.

Single Affiliation Fee

Schools who are also affiliating an RHA must only pay a single affiliation fee for both the RHA and NRHH affiliation.

ARTICLE II.

CHAPTER MEMBERSHIP

Section 1.

NRHH Membership

Once an individual has shown dedication and commitment to NRHH according to their chapter's standards, they will become an NRHH member for life.

Section 2.

Active Membership

Subsection A.

Definition

An active member of an NRHH Chapter is one that has been inducted into the chapter and is currently living in on-campus housing.

Subsection B.

Temporary Leaves

Temporary leaves from on-campus housing such as, but not limited to, co-ops, internships, or study abroad, will not affect the individual's active status within NRHH.

1. In the case of a temporary leave, the NRHH member should notify the chapter president in writing detailing the reason for and duration of the temporary leave.

Subsection C.

Student Requirement

An individual being inducted as an active member must be a student of the college or university with which the chapter is affiliated.

1. "Student" shall be defined by the chapter's host institution.
2. Students pursuing undergraduate, graduate, or professional degrees are all eligible for induction.

Subsection D.

On-Campus Requirement

Inductee must have lived in on-campus housing for at least one academic term as defined by the affiliated institution.

Subsection E.

Positive Contribution

Inductee must have made a positive contribution to the residence hall system.

Subsection F.

Academic Standards

Inductee must be a student possessing at least a 2.5 GPA on a 4.0 scale, or its equivalency.

1. In the event an institution does not operate on a 4.0 GPA scale, a representative from the affiliating institution will work with the current AD-NRHH of the institution's region to determine a grade equivalent to the NACURH GPA standard.

Section 3. Early Alumni Membership

Subsection A. Definition

An Early Alumni of an NRHH Chapter is a member that is still living in on-campus housing but can no longer meet the chapter membership expectations.

Subsection B. Membership Cap

Early Alumni members do not count toward the 1% membership cap.

1. The number of early alumni members a chapter shall be granted per academic year may not exceed fifteen percent of the chapter's membership cap.

Subsection C. Application Guidelines

The following guidelines apply to the procedure of applying for early alumni membership status:

1. The member and/or chapter must complete the early alumni membership application.
 - i. This form can be obtained from the region's AD-NRHH.
 - ii. The form must include the signatures of the chapter President, chapter advisor, and the chapter member who is applying for early alumni status.
2. The completed early alumni membership application shall be submitted to the region's AD-NRHH for approval.

Subsection D. Application Denial Guidelines

It is the right of the region's AD-NRHH to deny requests for early alumni membership reasons including, but not limited to:

1. Submission of an incomplete application form.
2. The region's AD-NRHH does not believe that sufficient measures have been taken by the chapter to address the member's inactivity within the chapter prior to submission of the application.
3. The chapter has exceeded its allotted number of early alumni members for the current academic year.

Subsection E. Appeals Process

If the member and/or chapter wish to appeal the decision of the region's AD-NRHH, they may appeal to the entire NNB. The decision of the NNB shall be final. In the event of an appeal to the NNB:

1. Each AD-NRHH shall have one vote.
2. A simple majority shall be necessary to accept the appeal, with the NAN casting the tie-breaking vote when necessary.

Section 4. Alumni Membership

Subsection A. Definition

An alumni member of an NRHH Chapter is a member that has moved off campus or is no longer a student.

Subsection B. Membership Cap

Alumni members do not count in the 1% membership cap.

Section 5. Honorary Membership

Subsection A. Definition

An Honorary membership is designed to recognize those who have demonstrated outstanding support and service to the residence hall students. This may include, but is not limited to housing personnel, instructors, and college or university staff.

Subsection B. Exceptions

Individuals who could qualify for active membership, with the exception of those graduating in the current academic term, cannot be inducted as an "honorary member."

Subsection C. Membership Cap

The number of honorary members a chapter shall be able to induct per academic year will not exceed ten percent of the chapter's membership cap.

1. These members do not count in the 1% membership cap.

Subsection D. Requirements

An individual being inducted as an honorary member must:

1. Have made positive contributions to the residence hall system
2. Otherwise be ineligible for active membership.

Section 6. Membership Capacity

Subsection A.

1% Definition

The active membership of a chapter may include no greater than 1% of the total residence hall population in the current academic year, or 20 members, whichever is larger.

Subsection B.

Active Membership Composition

Only active members, as defined above, are counted in the membership cap.

Section 7.

Membership Transfer Policy

Subsection A.

Eligibility

NRHH members that are transferring schools at any educational level, including incoming graduate students and incoming doctoral students, are able to apply to have their NRHH membership transferred from their outgoing institution to their incoming institution

Subsection B.

Process

Each NRHH chapter is able to accept/reject transfer members at their own discretion. If accepted, these members shall become active members of the new chapter.

Subsection C.

Guidelines

The Membership Transfer Policy must be outlined according to the following:

1. The student applying to transfer their membership must be fully matriculated at the new institution.
2. The student seeking to transfer their membership must contact the chapter president and advisor in writing detailing why they want to transfer their membership, how they benefitted their previous chapter and residence hall system, and how they hope to be involved in the new chapter.
3. Each chapter is able to come up with their own process detailing how letters will be evaluated.
4. If approved, the student and/or new chapter must complete the membership transfer application.
5. The membership transfer application may be obtained from the region's AD-NRHH.
6. The membership transfer application shall include signatures from the following individuals:
 - i. The incoming chapter's President.
 - ii. The incoming chapter's Advisor.

- iii. The NRHH member who is seeking to transfer their membership.
- 7. The completed application shall be submitted to the region's AD-NRHH for approval.
- 8. It is the right of the region's AD-NRHH to deny requests for reasons including, but not limited to:
 - i. The application form is incomplete.
 - ii. Adding new member(s) puts the chapter over its member cap.
- 8. If the member and/or chapter wish to appeal the decision of the region's AD-NRHH, they may appeal to the entire NNB. The decision of the NNB shall be final. In the event of an appeal to the NNB:
 - i. Each AD-NRHH shall have one vote.
 - ii. A simple majority shall be necessary, with tie-breaking vote when necessary.

Section 8. NRHH Member Removal Policy

Subsection A. Usage

The Removal Policy may be enacted if an Active member can no longer meet the chapter membership expectations.

Subsection B. Membership Cap

If an Active member is removed, they no longer count towards the 1% membership cap.

Subsection C. Guidelines

The following guidelines apply to the procedure for the removal of an Active member:

1. The member and/or chapter must complete the NRHH Member Removal Application.
 - i. This form can be obtained from the region's AD-NRHH.
 - ii. The form must include the electronic signatures of the chapter President and chapter advisor.
 - iii. This form must be submitted electronically.
2. The completed Member Removal application shall be submitted to the region's AD-NRHH for approval.
3. The amount of members for removal is up to the discretion of the chapter.
4. It is the right of the region's AD-NRHH to deny requests for removal for reasons including, but not limited to:
 - i. Submission of an incomplete application form

- ii. The region's AD-NRHH does not believe that sufficient measures have been taken by the chapter to address the member's inactivity or ineligibility within the chapter prior to submission of the application.
- 5. If the member and/or chapter wish to appeal the decision, they may appeal to the Regional AD-NRHH through written request as to why the Candidate deserves to continue as a member of NRHH.

Section 6. NACURH OTM Descriptions

Each NACURH OTM should be written and voted upon according to the following descriptions. OTMs must be submitted in the most applicable category.

Subsection A. Advisor

Any individual who directly advises a residence life organization and has made outstanding contributions to the organization(s). The individual may be the main advisor or the graduate advisor. Examples include, but are not limited to: RHA Advisor, NRHH Advisor, Area Council Advisor, Hall Council Advisor, Resident Assistant Advisory Board, etc...

Subsection B. Community Service Program

A service or philanthropic program that benefits a group, charity, or other organization. The program should focus on the importance of the residents giving back to the communities in which they live. Examples include, but are not limited to: drives, fundraisers, day of service, etc...

Subsection C. Diversity Program

A program that promotes and educates about diversity and understanding. This program illustrates the importance of promoting diversity in the residence halls as well as embracing diversity in the everyday lives of the residents.

Subsection D. Educational Program

A program meant to educate residents about a topic, issue or idea. Programs nominated in this category can include, but are not limited to programming focused on academic success, learning a new skill, promoting global citizenship, etc...

Subsection E.Executive Board Member

This category recognizes the outstanding contributions of an Executive Board member of a member school's residence life organization and the work of the board member within the Executive Board and across residence halls on their campus. Examples include, but are not limited to: Executive Board Members or Chair Positions in RHA, NRHH, etc...

Subsection F.First Year Student

This category includes student first year students (freshman, transfer student, non-traditional, etc) who excels in adapting to a new environment within their residence hall, takes an active role in their community, and positively impacts those around them. The nominee must be in their first year at their current institution. Submissions in this category may emphasize academics, leadership, involvement, and contributions to community, floor, hall, residence life organizations, etc. Individuals that would be eligible for nomination in any other category are ineligible for nomination in the First Year Student category.

Subsection G.Institution Faculty/Staff

This category includes individuals outside of residence life who aid students in their academics and/or personal affairs. This category is intended to recognize institutional faculty who have made a contribution to the residence life community both in and out of the classroom. Examples include, but are not limited to: Hall Councils, Executive Boards, Advisory Councils, Community Activities Board, Leadership Involvement Team, NRHH Chapters, etc... and Organizations Outside of Residential Life that positively impact resident students.

Subsection I.Resident Assistant

Any individual within a residence hall student staff who has worked with/impacted residents on their floor or in their hall. Nominees should have gone above and beyond the duties as outlined in their job description to support residents in the communities in which they work as well as residence life organizations, and/or made outstanding contributions to the hall in which they work during the month of nomination. The OTM should focus on the nominee's accomplishments within the RA role, but may also include other roles or responsibilities taken on during the month of nomination. Examples include, but are not limited to: Resident Assistant, Community Assistants, Senior Resident Assistants or any other positions equivalent to the RA position.

Subsection J. Residential Community

This category includes any residential community, such as wings, halls, floor, complexes, etc. This award should emphasize what this community has done and how it has supported others (both within and outside their community). The community being recognized must not be an official campus organization. The submissions should illustrate what brings a group of individuals together and how they worked as a group to accomplish their goals during the month of nomination. Communities that would be eligible for nomination in any other category are ineligible for nomination in the Community category.

Subsection K. Residence Life Professional Staff

This category includes individuals who aid residents within the housing campus community. This category is intended to recognize the Residence Life Professional Staff who are not eligible for the Resident Assistant category and who have made contributions to the residence life community in the month of nomination. Examples include, but are not limited to: Hall Directors, Graduate Assistants in Residence Life, Directors of Residential Life, Area Coordinators, Residential Life Office Secretaries, etc...

Subsection L. Passive Program

Any program that does not require anyone to actively run it for people to participate in it. This category is intended to recognize residential programming that occurs through bulletin boards, newsletters, pamphlets, etc.

Subsection M. Student Staff Member

Any individual within a residence hall student staff position that has worked to create a positive experience for the residential community. This category is intended to recognize student staff members while these students are not working in the capacity of a Resident Assistant or Executive Board Member position and who have made outstanding contributions to the residence life community in the month of nomination. Nominees should have gone above and beyond the duties as outlined in their job description, and the OTM should focus on the nominee's accomplishments within the student staff role, but may also include other roles or responsibilities taken on during the month of nomination. Examples include any residence life student staff position, including but not limited to: housing student/office assistants, front desk/office assistants/attendants, student maintenance/custodian assistants, marketing assistants, housing ambassadors/tour guides, security assistants, residence hall safety/patrol workers, programming assistant, learning community liaison, diversity mentors and academic support/tutor; however, this should not include paid executive board members of RHA/NRHH, or other hall council positions.

Subsection N. Social Program

Any social program that focuses on resident interaction and their ability to meet new people. Programs in this category can range from a floor social program to a campus wide program.

Subsection O. Spotlight

This category includes anything that does not fall under any of the other categories that you feel is worthy of Of the Month recognition. Individuals or groups that would be eligible for nomination in any other category are ineligible for nomination in the Spotlight category.

Subsection P. Student

This category includes any individual enrolled as a student at the institution who has made outstanding contributions to the residence halls during the month of nomination. Nominees could include, but are not limited to students who have made a contribution to their floor, hall, residence life organization, etc. through leadership, motivation, programming, volunteering and/or being a role model for other residents during the month of nomination. This OTM may address several areas of student life, such as academics, leadership, involvement etc...Also of importance is how the nominee has balanced their roles as a leader and a student and the display of good academic choices. Advisors, executive board members, first year students and anyone that can be classified as being in the resident assistant category are not eligible for an award in this category.

 - a. The member and/or chapter must complete the early alumni membership application (contact your region's AD-NRHH to obtain a copy) which shall include the signatures of: Chapter President, Chapter Advisor, and chapter member for whom the form is being completed.
 - b. The completed early alumni membership application shall be submitted to the region's AD-NRHH for approval.
- iii. The number of early alumni members a chapter shall be granted per academic year will not exceed fifteen percent of the chapter's membership cap (i.e.: if a chapter has a membership cap of 50, it will not be allowed more than 8 early alumni members approved per a year).
- iv. It is the right of the region's AD-NRHH to deny requests for reasons including, but not limited to:
 - a. The application form is incomplete.
 - b. The region's AD-NRHH does not believe that sufficient measures were taken by the chapter to address the member's inactivity with chapter business before submitting the application.
 - c. The chapter has exceeded its allotted early alumni membership approvals for the year.
- v. If the member and/or chapter wish to appeal the decision of the region's AD-NRHH, they may appeal to the entire NNB. The decision of the NNB shall be final.
 - a. Each AD-NRHH shall have one vote
 - b. A simple majority shall be necessary, with the NAN casting the tie-breaking vote when necessary.

4. Alumni Membership

- i. An active member of a chapter, who does not live in the residence hall system, or is no longer a student, shall be defined as an alumni member.
 - a. Exceptions include temporary leaves such as, but not limited to, co-ops, internships, or study abroad.
 - b. When members leave the on-campus community, they must submit a letter to the chapter stating whether the leave is temporary or permanent. When members submit a notice of temporary leave, they must indicate the duration of their leave to the chapter.
 - c. If a member who has submitted a notice of permanent leave returns to the residence halls and the chapter membership cap has been reached, the chapter shall contact the NAN to request a temporary increase in their capacity until the next membership drive, at which time the chapter size must return to its correct membership capacity. In this case the returning member will not receive voting rights until a position becomes available within the chapter.

5. Honorary Membership

- i. An individual who is inducted into a NRHH chapter and is not a student but offers support to the on-campus community and the student affairs profession, including but not limited to, such as housing personnel, instructors, and college or university staff shall be defined as an honorary member.
 - a. Individuals who could qualify for active membership, with the exception of graduating seniors, cannot be inducted as an "honorary member."
 - b. The number of honorary members a chapter shall be able to induct per academic year will not exceed ten percent of the chapter's membership cap.
6. NOTE: These are the ONLY FOUR TYPES OF MEMBERSHIP in NRHH. Any other types of membership will prevent constitution approval.

7. Membership Capacity

- i. The total active membership of a chapter may include up to, but not more than, 1% of the total residence hall population that year, or 20 members, whichever is larger. The total 1% membership does not include alumni, early alumni or honorary members.

8. Member Removal Policy

- i. The Removal Policy may be enacted if an Active member can no longer meet the chapter membership expectations.
- ii. If an Active member is removed, they no longer count towards the 1% membership cap.
- iii. The following guidelines apply to the procedure for the removal of an Active member:
 - a. The member and/or chapter must complete the NRHH Member Removal Application.
 - b. This form can be obtained from the region's AD-NRHH.
 - c. The form must include the electronic signatures of the chapter President and chapter advisor.
 - d. This form must be submitted electronically.
 - e. The completed Member Removal application shall be submitted to the region's AD-NRHH for approval.
- iv. The amount of members for removal is up to the discretion of the chapter.

- v. It is the right of the region's AD-NRHH to deny requests for removal for reasons including, but not limited to:
 - a. A. Submission of an incomplete application form.
 - b. The region's AD-NRHH does not believe that sufficient measures have been taken by the chapter to address the member's inactivity or ineligibility within the chapter prior to submission of the application.
- vi. If the member and/or chapter wish to appeal the decision, they may appeal to the Regional AD-NRHH through written request as to why the Candidate deserves to continue as a member of NRHH.

9. NRHH Membership Transfer Policy

- i. NRHH members that are transferring schools at any educational level, including incoming graduate students and incoming doctoral students, are able to apply to have their NRHH membership transferred from their outgoing institution to their incoming institution
- ii. Each NRHH chapter is able to accept/reject transfer members at their own discretion. If accepted, these members shall become active members of the new chapter. The Membership Transfer Policy must be outlined according to the following:
 - a. The student applying to transfer their membership must be fully matriculated at the new institution.
 - b. The student seeking to transfer their membership must contact the chapter president and advisor in writing detailing why they want to transfer their membership, how they benefitted their previous chapter and residence hall system, and how they hope to be involved in the new chapter.
 - c. Each chapter is able to come up with their own process detailing how letters will be evaluated.
- iii. If approved, the student and/or new chapter must complete the membership transfer application.
- iv. The membership transfer application may be obtained from the region's AD-NRHH.
- v. The membership transfer application shall include signatures from the following individuals:
 - a. The incoming chapter's President.
 - b. The incoming chapter's Advisor.
 - c. The NRHH member who is seeking to transfer their membership.
- vi. The completed application shall be submitted to the region's AD-NRHH for approval.
- vii. It is the right of the region's AD-NRHH to deny requests for reasons including, but not limited to:

- a. The application form is incomplete.
 - b. Adding new member(s) puts the chapter over its member cap.
- viii. If the member and/or chapter wish to appeal the decision of the region's AD-NRHH, they may appeal to the entire NNB. The decision of the NNB shall be final. In the event of an appeal to the NNB:
- a. Each AD-NRHH shall have one vote.
 - b. A simple majority shall be necessary, with tie-breaking vote when necessary.

Article 2 - Early Alumni Status Application

Early Alumni Status Application

Early Alumni Status Policy: An Early Alumni Member of an NRHH Chapter is a member that is still living on campus but can no longer meet the chapter's expectations for active membership. These members do not count toward the 1% membership cap. The following guidelines apply to the procedure of applying for early alumni membership status:

1. The member and/or chapter must complete the early alumni membership application (contact your AD-NRHH to obtain a copy) which shall include the signatures of: Chapter President, Chapter Advisor, and chapter member for whom the form is being completed.
2. The completed early alumni membership application shall be submitted to the respective AD-NRHH for approval.
3. The number of early alumni members a chapter shall be granted per academic year will not exceed fifteen percent (15) of the chapter's membership cap (i.e.: if a chapter has a membership cap of 50, it will not be allowed more than 8 early alumni members approved per year).
4. It is the right of the AD-NRHH to deny requests for reasons including, but not limited to:
 - a. The application form is incomplete.
 - b. The AD-NRHH does not believe that sufficient measures were taken by the chapter to address the member's inactivity with chapter business before submitting the application.
 - c. The chapter has exceeded its cap for early alumni membership approvals for the year.
5. If the member and/or chapter wish to appeal the decision of the AD-NRHH, they may appeal to the NRHH National Board (NNB). The decision of the NNB shall be final.
 - a. Each AD-NRHH shall have one vote.
 - b. A simple majority shall be necessary, with the NAN casting the tie-breaking vote when necessary.
