“And when my time is up, have I done enough? Will they tell my story?”

January 27, 2018

Dear Regional Board of Directors,

It is with great pride that I write this letter of support for Nicole Pacewic as the National Communications Coordinator of the Year. I have worked with Nicole for two and a half years, and I am confident that you will find her to be a great candidate for the award.

Over the past year, Nicole has continued her growth as a leader on campus at Northern Illinois University and at a number of conferences. Nicole shows her dedication to the university through her work on the Residence Hall Association Executive Board. Taking an active part in program planning and execution, Nicole outsteps her positional duties and creates a positive, team-oriented atmosphere on the executive board.

Nicole has used the knowledge and skills she has gained at conferences to serve as the RHA Parliamentarian in addition to her position as the NCC. Whenever there is a need for Parliamentary Procedure or Robert's Rules of Order, Nicole is prepared to give feedback.

Nicole has served as a liaison and representative of NIU at state, regional, and international conference. In boardroom, Nicole takes an active role in making sure that the institution is well represented. She has developed strong relationships with representatives from other institutions across the state, region, and world. Through those relationships, Nicole has been able to excel at her work.

As an NCC, Nicole organizes delegations to represent NIU at conferences. Nicole works to select a diverse group of students to represent NIU. During delegation meetings, she leads activities to allow the students to get to know each other better and prepare them for what to expect at a conference. Her positivity and knowledge help delegates feel more comfortable with the new experience of conferences.

On behalf of the NIU Residence Hall Association, I am confident that Nicole is very deserving of being recognized the National Communications Coordinator of the Year. Nicole's focus on inclusion, development, and leadership prove that she is well deserving of this award.

Best regards,

Ben Skipor
President
NIU Resident Hall Association

“When you’re gone who remembers your name? Who keeps your flame? Who tells your story?”

To whom it may concern,

I am pleased to write this letter of support for Nicole Pacewic’s bid for GLACURH National Communications Coordinator of the Year. Nicole has excelled during her time at Northern Illinois University as both a student and student leader. Her time as NIU’s NCC has seen some of the greatest growth in NIU’s involvement within the region and beyond.

In the past year, Nicole’s accomplishments have reached new heights. Beginning with NACURH 2017, Nicole worked tirelessly to coordinate NIU’s largest conference delegation. Because of Nicole’s dedication to providing students with unique experiences, NIU took 12 students, who presented a total of 14 programs at the conference. This, combined with the example Nicole presented of regional participation, led the delegation to win NACURH’s Most Spirited Delegation award. However, this was only the beginning, as Nicole continued to inspire student to get involved in GLACURH RLC 2017. Once again, Nicole advocated to take as many students as possible and the delegation presented a significant number of programs. Once again, the passion that Nicole has sparked at NIU for student leadership lead the students to win GLACURH’s Most Spirited Delegation award.

As a NCC, Nicole has consistently showed dedication and pride in her position. She also prioritizes her role as a leader and strives to create a community feeling in each hall through acts of service. By dedicating her time to serve others, Nicole has shown an interest in working to help others and continues to excel in doing this. Nicole exemplifies leadership through her roles within and outside of the communities on campus. Nicole’s willingness to go above and beyond for RHA is constantly appreciated. The positive example that Nicole sets for all those around him ensures that he is an outstanding leader on campus.

Being able to advise Nicole has been a joy. She is always looking for ways to improve and provide new ways for student to engage with RHA on our campus and beyond. She is willing to go above and beyond, and continuously strives to be a positive role model. Nicole’s contributions to student leadership at NIU have been significant and after two years she continues to impress me with her determination. For all of these and more reason, I believe that she is more than worthy of recognition as National Communications Coordinator of the Year for GLACURH 2018.
